Recruitment Orientations

What can I expect?

Attend one of the following seminars/workshops

Becoming an officer of the California Highway Patrol will be physically and mentally challenging. To assist interested candidates in the applications process, Valley Division will host the following seminars/workshops. The seminars/workshops are optional and are not part of the testing process; however, we strongly encourage applicants to attend.

Applicant Seminars – These seminars are designed to assist applicants with preparing for the written examination. First-time applicants or applicants who were unsuccessful on any previous written examination should make every effort to attend.

QAP Workshops – These workshops are designed to assist applicants with the Physical Ability Test (PAT) and the Qualifications Appraisal Panel Interview (QAP) phases of the testing cycle. Applicants will participate in group discussions and mock oral interviews.

If you have any questions regarding these seminars/workshops or would like to attend, RSVP to Valley Division Recruitment Unit at (916) 464-2090 or by email: 201recruitment@chp.ca.gov. When submitting your RSVP by email, please indicate which seminar/workshop you would like to attend.
